

JEAN CÔTÉ

PhD, Professor

Dr. Côté is Professor in the School of Kinesiology and Health Studies at Queen's University where he served as the Director of the School from 2006-2019. He is a Fellow of the Canadian Society for Psychomotor Learning and Sport Psychology (SCAPPS) and the International Society of Sport Psychology (ISSP).

Dr. Côté's research interests include the examination of (a) the interaction between youth, their social dynamics (coaches, parents, peers), and the environment for the development of personal assets and excellence in sport, and b) the factors that affect personal development, participation, and performance in sport. His most recent research grant involves the examination of parents as "consumers" in the youth sport system and the use of observation techniques to examine the influence of Transformational Coaching on athletes' development.

JEAN CÔTÉ

PhD, Professor

He had the opportunity to work with and mentored 9 Post-Doctoral Fellows, 14 Doctoral students and 31 Master students who have pursued careers as academics and other service-related professions. In 2012, Dr. Côté received the Award for Excellence in Graduate Supervision for the Social Sciences and Humanities at Queen's University.

Dr. Côté published more than 180 refereed papers on a variety of sport psychology and youth sport topics and 60 book chapters. He is regularly invited to present his work to both sport governing organizations and academic conferences throughout the world and have delivered 65 keynote addresses at major national and international conferences.