

VANDA CORREIA

Assistant Professor

Vanda Correia is Assistant Professor and Director of the degree in Sport at the School of Education and Communication of the University of Algarve, Portugal. At this institution she teaches, among other subjects, Motor Development and Learning, Child Motor Skills, and Sport Pedagogy. She is also a member of the Interdisciplinary Center for the Study of Human Performance (CIPER) in Faculdade de Motricidade Humana, University of Lisbon (FMH-UL).

Vanda Correia is majored Physical Education and holds a PhD in Sport Sciences (funded by the Foundation for Science and Technology Portugal) from the FMH-UL. Her doctoral research, developed under the academic supervision of Duarte Araújo, as focused on investigating Decision Making in Team Sports such as rugby union. Nowadays she is particularly motivated to master and apply ecological dynamics framework in research on child motor learning and development and pedagogical interventions. Research interests: Ecological Dynamics, Motor Learning, Motor Development, Affordances, Play.